University of Alaska Fairbanks

UWA

University Women's Association

The UWA is a diverse group who supports the University of Alaska Fairbanks community. We sponsor service projects and social events, and we partner with other organizations for special events. We especially seek to provide a supportive and friendly space for new faculty and staff and their spouse/partners. Proceeds from our fundraising activities primarily benefit scholarships for women students, but we also contribute to local and campus organizations. We welcome all community members interested in supporting UAF and meeting new friends within the University circle.
